PREAMBLE:

In Government Order dated: 03-08-2009 read at (1) above, the Government of Karnataka had authorized the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf and the Waqf Officers across the State to issue the Marriage Certificates to the Muslim applicants after verifying the concerned records.

(೧೨೭೭)

In Government Addendum dated 07.09.2009 read at (2) above, the following para has been included to the G.O. dated: 03.08.2009.

“In respect of the marriages performed by the Khazies in Hyderabad-Karnataka area the condition stipulated above are applicable”

The Hon’ble High Court of Karnataka, Kalaburagi Bench in its order dated:10-06-2011 read at (3) above has quashed the G.O. dated 03.08.2009 and Addendum dated 07.09.2009 with a direction to hold an enquiry that whether Khazis are empowered by the Wakf Board to issue such certificates as per law and pass appropriate orders. Further ordered that if the appointment of 2nd Respondent by the order of the 3rd Respondent is in order, the same holds good.

The Khazi Act 1880 was in existence in Kalyana Karnnataka (Hyderabad Karnataka) Area consisting of 6 Districts namely Bidar, Kalburgi, Yadgir, Raichur, Koppal and Bellary and the Khazis were appointed as per Section 2 of the Khazi Act 1880 to perform the marriages in Muslim community.

In Government Notification dated:19.03.2013 read at (4) above, The Khazi Act 1880 was repealed.

In circular dated: 03-12-2013 read at (5) above, wherein it is stated that “As the Khazi Act 1880 has been repealed, the existing post of Khazis in Bidar, Kalburgi, Yadgir, Raichur, Koppal and Bellary Districts will be affected, therefore it is hereby informed that the residents of these Districts will have to follow the same practice followed in other 24 Districts of Karnataka State.

In circular Dated 30-06-2014 read at (6) above, the circular No. MWD 08 WES 2011, Bengaluru Dated: 03-12-2013, has been withdrawn in view of the Section 6 of the Karnataka General Clauses Act, 1897 and Section 4(1) (iii) of the Karnataka Repealing of Certain Enactments and Regional Laws Act 2013.

The Chief Executive Officer of the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf, Bengaluru in their letter read at (7) above, has sent a proposal to Government to issue appropriate directions for issuing the Marriage Certificates to the Muslim applicants in the state of Karnataka. Further also stated that Nikah Namahs issued by the Mosques registered under the Wakf, are almost in Urdu language and hence the Marriage Certificates issued by the Wakf Office are used for validation in Passport/ Visa purposes for abroad travel and also for other purposes.

Presently, the process of issuing Marriage Certificates has been stopped, due to which the public who are intending to travel abroad are facing difficulties. Further requested to authorized the Wakf Board to issue marriage certificates to the Muslim applicants in the State as the most of the Muslim marriages are registered in the Mosques (Masjid) and in turn majority of the Mosques are registered in the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf. Even in the neighboring states also the marriage certificates are issuing by the respective Waqf Boards.

In Karnataka, except Kalyana Karnataka region, Marriages in the Muslim Community are conducted by the management of Mosques (Masjid) and are entered in the register maintained by the respective Mosques.

In Kalyana Karnataka region (Hyderabad Karnataka Region) the Muslim marriages are performed by the Khazis. The Khazis who were appointed prior to repeal of Khazi Act 1880, are functioning as per Section 4(1) (iii) (Savings) of the Karnataka Repealing of Certain Enactments and Regional Laws Act 2013.

All the Mosques within the State of Karnataka and Khazath Institutions are under the general supervision of the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf as per the Wakf Act, 1995 (as amended in 2013). Earlier the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf was issuing the Marriage Certificates, after verifying the entries in the Marriage Register (Dafthar) maintained by the respective Mosques and khazis in Kalyana Karnataka region.

In Government Order dated: 21.02.2023 read at (8) above, Government have authorized the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf and it's Waqf Officers to issue Marriage Certificates. Certain requests are received to modify or to withdraw the same.

In order to facilitate the Muslim applicants and to regulate the issuance of the Marriage Certificates to Muslim Community in the state, the Government deems it necessary to issue an revised order authorizing the Karnataka State Board of Auqaf to issue the Marriage Certificates to the Muslim Applicants. Hence, this order.

GOVERNMENT ORDER NO. MWD 65 WES 2022, BENGALURU,
